

Agape Community's Annual St. Francis Day

Women and War: Finding Our Voices, Reclaiming Our Legacy

Saturday Oct. 9th 10am-6pm

Including interfaith service, bring a lunch and pot luck for music circle into the evening.

Our participants include:

Dr. Paula Green: founder, Executive Director, Karuna Center; School for International Training CONTACT (Conflict Transformation Across Cultures); winner of the Unsung Heroes of Compassion given by His Holiness the Dalai Lama..

Martha Hennessy, seventh grandchild of Dorothy Day, arrested protesting wars Guantanamo; will speak on nonviolent, direct action in opposition to war and injustice.

Habinomana Matirde, born in Burundi, fled to Rwanda, and now lives in the US.

Robyn Murray, combat veteran of Iraq Veterans Against the War (IVAW) and member of Writer Warriors.

Maryam Shansab, Maryam Shansab is an Afghan-American peace activist. Member of United for Justice with Peace, Afghanistan Task force. Afternoon panel will include women from Smith College and area colleges.

College Peace Camp on Indigenous Peoples' Weekend from Oct. 9-11. Contact Agape for more details at:

peace@agapecommunity.org

www.agapecommunity.org 413-967-9369

2062 Greenwich Rd. Ware, MA. 01082